Subject: Request for Permission to Conduct a Field Visit to CGST Office on the Occasion of Central Excise Day on 24th Feb. 2025 at 12.00pm.

Respected Sir/Madam,

I am writing to request permission for a field visit to the CGST Office for our B.Com students on the occasion of Central Excise Day, which is celebrated on 24th February 2025.

We would like to organize a visit for our students on 24th February 2025 at 12:00 PM to gain valuable insights into the workings of the CGST department and to enhance their practical understanding of Central Excise and Goods and Services Tax (GST). The visit will provide an excellent learning experience for the students, aligning with their academic curriculum.

The number of students expected to participate is approximately 40 students, and we are eager to ensure the students adhere to all necessary protocols and guidelines while visiting the office.

We kindly request your permission and support to make this visit a successful and enriching experience for the students. Your guidance and cooperation in organizing this field visit will be highly appreciated.

Thank you for considering our request. I look forward to your positive response.

REPORT:

On the Occasion of Central Excise Day the Department of Commerce organized field visit to CGST & Central Excise Office, Nagpur. The visit was led by Mr. Anil Pandit, Superintendent, CGST office, Nagpur, who provided an in-depth understanding of the concepts of CGST and Central Excise. Mr. Anil Pandit explained the role of CGST in India's tax structure and how the system has evolved to streamline tax collection, improve compliance, and ensure smooth operation of businesses across the country. The students were also introduced to the legal framework of Central Excise, which governs the manufacturing and taxation of goods produced within India.

During the visit, students were taken through various departments and sections of the office where they observed the day-to-day activities, including the processing of tax documents, compliance checks, and the implementation of rules related to excise duties. The visit helped the students gain a deeper understanding of the procedures involved in excise and GST collections, as well as the importance of these functions in the overall economy.

The field visit to the CGST & Central Excise Office was an enriching experience for the students, providing them with crucial insights into the functioning of India's tax system. With Mr. Anil Pandit guidance and the presence of faculty members including Mr. Ankit Pusadkar, Dr. Vaishali Fating, Mr. Purvesh Fating and Ms. Nidhi Nakhale, the visit was a success and significantly benefitted the 71 students who attended. The visit was organized and coordinated by Mr. Ankit Pusadkar and Mr. Purvesh Fating.
