

B.A.LL.B 5 YEAR DEGREE PROGRAMMEPROGRAMME

OUTCOMES

Students who have studied the 5 year degree programme of Law are expected to have :

PO1. A general understanding of the nature of polity established, the laws enacted in this country and the system of administration of justice.

PO2. The ability to appreciate the different philosophies, doctrines, and principles on which the various laws are structured

PO3. Learn and recognize the inter-disciplinary relation that law has with various other disciplines and thus be able to address diverse socio-legal problems.

PO4. The ability to analyse the law and understand its application in real life situations.

PO5. The ability to research the law in order to be able to search and cite relevant cases before the court of law.

PO6. Inculcate the necessary drafting skills required for preparing pleadings, deeds and other legal documents etc

PO7. The ability to frame arguments in favour of their clients, to be canvassed before the court of law, learn the nuances of Court craft and court mannerisms etc

PO8. The ability to understand the several moral and ethical dilemmas in law.

PO9. To understand the ethics of the legal profession and the duty of a lawyer to the court, to the client and to the society

PO10. To enable students to enter the legal profession or to start up an enterprise or make themselves effectively employable in diverse sectors.

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES:

Understand the substantive and procedural laws within the country, and apply them appropriately.

Understand that legal education involves a process of life-long learning owing to the dynamics of the judicial process and enactment of new laws.

Develop leadership and inter-personal skills to be able to give appropriate advice in various social and other issues

The ability to understand the transformative potential of law and utilize it as an instrument for effecting a change in the lives of people in society

B.A. LL.B. I SEMESTER 5 YC

Subject: 1.English- I

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course of English for the Law students walks them through specific learning of the language that deals with the basic understanding of the syntax, phonetics and grammar. The course is divided into different sections which include prose, poetry and grammar as well as other topics like comprehension and composition. The course will study and analyze how to develop communication skills and what is the scope of development in the language and how it will benefit the student in their future endeavor.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Enhance the understanding of English short stories and their relevance with emotion and psychology.
CO 2	Understand the poetry that will give them an idea of imagination and appreciate the process of poetry creation
CO 3	Comprehend the formal communication skills where students will learn the basics of letter writing and drafting.
CO 4	Enhance their vocabulary through the communication skills specially the verbal communication
CO 5	Comprehend the basics of Grammar and their end uses.

Subject: 2.Philosophy- I

Course Objective:

The essential feature which distinguishes man from other creatures is his ability to reason. The reasoning ability is revealed when men infer, argue or demand proof. The main task of logic is to distinguish correct reasoning from incorrect. The course is designed to understand fundamental principle of thought and the rules governing validity of the argument.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Enhance the thought process, reasoning ability and adaptability in day to day life.
CO 2	Understand the basic important concepts of logic such as proposition, categorical proposition and inference syllogism.
CO 3	Practice methods, techniques and principles to distinguish correct from incorrect reasoning.
CO 4	Develop the skill in judging the validity of an argument.
CO 5	Comprehend Categorical Syllogism and the application of Rules of Categorical syllogism and fallacies.
CO 6	Discuss non formal fallacies which are committed due to wrong use of terms, rules in exception and irrelevant premises.

Subject: 3. History – I

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course is designed to make the students aware about the sources of early ancient Indian history. Enable the students to know the evolution of political structure and kingship, duties of a King and Checks on his Powers. Enable the students to get to know the reform of the religion and ensures the progress of language, literature and art and architecture.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Understand the Mourya Vedic and Gupta administration in ancient India
CO 2	Identify the cultural synthesis and religious movements in ancient India
CO 3	Analyze the judicial administration
CO 4	Gain insight into historical monuments and cultural and social heritage of ancient India
CO 5	Get an insight into nature, aims and functions of the state
CO 6	Understand the literary and archeological sources of ancient Indian History

Subject: 4. Economics –I

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To able to understand basic concepts of economics.
2. To able to analyze economic behavior in practice.
3. Understand the economic way of thinking.
4. The ability to analyze historical and current events from an economic perspective.
5. The ability to write clearly expressing an economic point of view.
6. Be exposed to alternative approaches to economic problems through exposure to coursework in Legal fields.
7. To create students ability to suggest of the various economic problems

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

Co 1	Demonstrate knowledge of the nature, scope and limitation of Economic laws.
Co 2	Analyse the approaches towards micro and macroeconomics.
Co 3	Critically evaluate the theories of utility and consumer behavior.
Co 4	Understand the utility analysis of demand and various assumptions and exceptions in law.
Co 5	Explain and calculate price elasticity of demand and types of price elasticity.
Co 6	Appreciate the concept of law of supply and various assumptions and exceptions in law.
Co 7	Develop a perspective of application of theories of production.
Co 8	Demonstrate an understanding of marketing structure including the concept of price determination and perfect competition.

Subject: 5. Political Science – I

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course of Political science inscribes on the student of political science the importance of relationship between an individual and the State. It aims at understanding the basic concepts, theories and functioning of State. The course focuses on inculcating amongst students how the government and its agencies operate in the society. It also gives a brief insight into fundamental aspects of Constitutional Law and Administrative Law.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Understand the relationship of political science with law.
CO 2	Comprehend the basic concepts like State, elements of state, and the distinction between State and Society, Association, Government and Nation.
CO 3	Examine the concept and theory of Sovereignty.
CO 4	Understand and discuss the concept and theory of Pluralism
CO 5	Comprehend the concept of Nation and nationality
CO 6	Evaluate the Characteristics of good Constitution and be able to understand the country wise classification of Constitution and develop an insight of concept of constitutionalism.
CO 7	Study the political ideas of Karl Marx.
CO 8	Analyze the concept of Democracy, and its Kinds including the conditions necessary for successful working of Democracy.
CO 9	Explore the concept of Socialism in particular democratic socialism.
CO 10	Understand the political ideas of Mahatma Gandhi.

Subject: 6. Law of Contract – I

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Formation of contract being mandatory for all commercial transactions accentuates the importance of the subject. It is therefore understandable that contract forms part of the group of law subjects offered to the first year students. The focus of the course is on the nature of agreement, the reason for non-enforceability of an agreement, the justification for non-performance of an agreement and the ground for awarding damages. The relevance of the old doctrines in the present circumstances will also be analysed. An important area of discussion will be the growing trend of resorting to standard form of contract. Overall the study of Contract-I will enable the students to better appreciate the need for State intervention in the formation of contract. Doctrines like promissory estoppel, Doctrine of unconscionable bargains, economic duress have been evolved through the various judgments. Thus ideologies of the judges and the subsisting socio-economic circumstances will be analysed in order to evaluate the judgments. The relevance of the old doctrines in the present circumstances will also be analysed.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO1	To understand the historical development and certain important terminologies under the law of Contract like offer, acceptance, consideration, contractual ability, e- contracts etc.
CO2	To understand the capacity to contract, competent parties, free consent and Legality of object under the contract. To know the concept of contingent contract and wagering agreements
CO3	To understand the various modes of discharge of contract.
CO4	To understand the consequences of breach of contract and remedies available under the Contract act. To Understand the concepts like damages and specific performance To Acquire problem solving technique and identify current laws, rules, and regulations.

B.A. LL.B. II SEMESTER 5 YC

Subject: 1.English- II

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The course of English-II for the Law students guides them through learning ability of the language and phonetics. They will learn the nuances of spoken English through phonetics. The course will study and analyze how to develop communication skills and use it in future for their legal acumen.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	This course will give the basic understanding of facts about English and Phonetics.
CO 2	The poetry portion will give them a journey into the world of fantastic imagination and understanding of Figure of Speeches.
CO 3	This unit will give an idea of developing and creating scripts through dialogue writing.
CO 4	This unit will enhance the use of Floral language through Idioms and Phrases
CO 5	This course of grammar will give them the basic idea of conversion of sentences from Simple to Compound to Complex.

Subject: 2. Philosophy- II

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The main aim of the course is to determine the validity of the argument. To enable the students to make precise and flawless argument, the new symbolic approach is developed. With the symbols arguments can be formulated with precision.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	Students will understand the need and importance of symbolic logic and will formulate the argument using symbols with precision and demonstrate the correctness of arguments.
CO 2	Students will be able to know the Decision Procedure through Truth Table Method and Shorter Truth Table Method and to distinguish valid argument from invalid.
CO 3	Students will learn the techniques for the analysis and appraisal of deductive arguments through the rules of deduction.
CO 4	Students will understand the rules of quantification and proposition and propositional function along with the development of idea about truth functional compound proposition which is the base of symbolic logic
CO 5	Students will be able to grasp the three laws of thought and the concept of Inconsistency.

Subject: 3. History – II

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Course attempts to acquaint the students about the impact of religious, Economic and Revenue Administration in Medieval India. The student is exposed to the effect of Islamic advent on Indian way of life. The students are exposed to understand rise of Marathas power and its administration under Shivaji. The course is designed to give fair idea about the Bhakti movement and Sufism. Course will give wider knowledge about judicial administration, procedures and crime and punishment in Medieval India

COURSE OUTCOME: The student will be able to:

CO 1	Appreciate the Advent of Islam emphasizing on Early Life and Career of Prophet Mohammad and will learn the spread of Islam through the teachings of Prophet Mohammad.
CO 2	Understand the Nature and State of Government in Medieval India highlighting the role of Delhi Sultanate, Mughals and Administration of Vijayanagar Empire
CO 3	Understand the Rise of Maratha Power, Early Life and Career of Shivaji and Maratha Administration under Shivaji and the Peshwas.
CO 4	Emphasize the Economic and Revenue Administration in Medieval India
CO 5	Understand Judicial Administration in Medieval India wherein they will discover the sources of Law, Popular Law Courts, its Procedures and Crimes and Punishments.
CO 6	Learn the emergence of Synthetic Culture like Bhakti Movement, Sufi Movement and Sikhism.
CO 7	Understand the certain Important Political Events and their Impact on Indian History.

Subject: 4. Economics –II

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To able to understand basic concepts of economics.
2. To able to analyze economic behavior in practice.
3. Understand the economic way of thinking.
4. The ability to analyze historical and current events from an economic perspective.
5. The ability to write clearly expressing an economic point of view.

6. Be exposed to alternative approaches to economic problems through exposure coursework in Legal fields.
7. To create students ability to suggest of the various economic problems.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Comprehend the concept of National Income, its features, measurements and its difficulties in the Measurement of National Income in India.
CO 2	Discover the Types, Causes and Remedies of Unemployment and to develop an insight into Full Employment Policy.
CO 3	Develop an understanding of Central Banking and its Principles and Functions of Central Bank.
CO 4	Develop an understanding of Commercial Banking, its Functions and Credit creation by Commercial Banks.
CO 5	Understand the Public Finance, its Principles and will learn the definition, characteristics and Canons of Taxation.
CO 6	Define the Public debt, its Classification, Causes and effects and the concept of Public expenditure.
CO 7	Describe the Meaning and objectives of economic planning.
CO 8	Identify the Functions of Co-Operative Banks and Co-operative credit societies

Subject: 5. Political Science – II

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course of Political Science-II exposes students with the working of political organizations. It also lays emphasis on basic principles engulfing to State and Law and its implementing machineries. This course also focuses on the understanding of democratic principles and its relation to socialism. It aims at enhancing the knowledge of students relating different types of administration present in different countries.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Develop the understanding of the three organs of Government Viz. Legislature, Executive and Judiciary along with their respective functions.
CO 2	Identify the role of Executive, its different kinds and Functions.
CO 3	Express the role and functions of Judiciary and will be able to understand the importance of Independence of Judiciary and Judicial Review.
CO 4	Understand the Unitary forms of Government and its Merits and Demerits
CO 5	Identify the features of Federal form of Government and its Merits and Demerits
CO 6	Develop an understanding of the concept of Confederation
CO 7	Emphasize on the theory of Separation of Power and its Applicability in present day context.
CO 8	Recognize the different aspects of Parliamentary form of Government its Features, Merits and Demerits
CO 9	Relate the Presidential form of Government with other forms and analyze its Features, Merits and Demerits.
CO 10	Outline the importance of Political Parties in a Democracy and identify its types and functions.

Subject: 6. Law of Contract – II*COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course will introduce the students to different kinds of contracts like Indemnity, Guarantee, Bailment, Pledge, Agency, Sale of goods, Partnership etc. and its intricacies. This law is contained in several legislations apart from the Indian Contract Act. This course equips the students to better appreciate the legal services required in a corporate office so that he can enhance his relevance as a lawyer in society.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To remember and comprehend the basic principles of special contracts like contract of Indemnity and contract of guarantee etc. The students will be able to understand the growing importance of new forms of special contracts including standard form of contract.
CO2	To understand the concept of Agency, rights and duties of principal and agents and termination of Agency under the Law of Contract
CO3	To understand the nature and scope of Indian Partnership Act, 1932 Types of partners, and legal provisions relating to Formation and registration of Partnership firm and its dissolution. It will help the students to learn the Partnership Act and formation of Partnership firm. To understand the Salient Features of Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008.
CO4	To understand the Contract of sale, Conditions and Warranties, Passing of property, Transfer of title and Remedies for Breach of Contract under Sales of Good Act, 1930.
CO5	To remember and understand the legal provisions relating to Government Contracts.

B.A. LL.B. III SEMESTER 5 YC

Subject: 1.English- III

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The course of English III for the Law students will develop their reasoning abilities, wisdom, and also philosophical abilities. The course will study and analyze how to develop psychological analysis and use in future while case studies. With the help of foreign words and Latin words of law used in English language.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	This unit will make the students understand from the articles based on wisdom, knowledge, rules and regulations and work.
CO 2	This unit, the poems are based on philosophy rather than nature which will help the student to understand basic philosophy in literature
CO 3	This course will make them understand the style of writing perfect essays based on socio-political, cultural and legal topics.
CO 4	This unit will help them develop vocabulary in communication skills both in writing as well as verbal, with the use of synonyms and antonyms.
CO 5	This will help the students to learn again the transformation of sentences from Simple to Compound to Complex.

Subject: 2.Philosophy- III

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

This course consists of two methods of reasoning, deductive and inductive. The main task of induction is to establish real general universal factual statement based on uniformity of nature.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Advance knowledge about two reasoning methods- Deductive and Inductive.
CO 2	Express the grounds of induction through observation and experiment which help to establish real, general, synthetic and materially true propositions.
CO 3	Outline the meaning and types of laws and emphasize on the Law of Nature
CO 4	Understand the nature and origin of hypothesis and formulate the Condition of good Hypothesis which are needed in establishing materially true propositions.
CO 5	Recognize the basic formal principles of Method of agreement, Method of difference Joint method of agreement and difference, Method of residues and Method of concomitant which are very much necessary to establish real general universal propositions.

Subject: 3. History – III

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

Apply a systematic approach to the ideas about different reforms which subordinate in law subject from modern history.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Outline the factors Leading to the Arrival of European Companies in India with special mention to the Portuguese- The Dutch, The English, The French.
CO 2	Identify the reasons for Growth of British Empire in Bengal-. Battle of Plessey-. Battle of Buxar-Dual Govt. In Bengal grant of Diwani
CO 3	Sketch the Administrative Structure including Administrative Reforms under the East India Company-
CO 4	Identify the reasons for the Growth of Judicial system under British rule.
CO 5	Critically analyse the Landmark Cases such as Raja Nandakumar's Case(1775); The Patna Case(1777-79); The Cossijurah Case(1779-80)
CO 6	Understand the factors responsible for the Growth of Modern Means of Communication System and Educational Policies under the British.
CO 7	Examine the history of Revolt of 1857 and its Causes, Nature, and Queen's Proclamation' Act of Better Governance.

Subject: 4. Economics –III

COURSE OBJECTIVES :

1. To able to understand basic concepts of economics.
2. To able to analyze economic behavior in practice.
3. Understand the economic way of thinking.
4. The ability to analyze historical and current events from an economic perspective.
5. The ability to write clearly expressing an economic point of view.
6. Be exposed to alternative approaches to economic problems through exposure to coursework in Legal fields.
7. To create students ability to suggest of the various economic problems.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Understand the concept and function of money
CO 2	Devise the Role of money in a capitalistic economy and Socialistic economy and its Advantages and devils of money
CO 3	Understand the Quantity Theory of Money and Fisher's version and Cambridge's with their limitations.
CO 4	Point out the Changes in the Value of Money with reference to Inflation Deflation Disinflation Reflation Stagflation

CO 5	Define labour and learn Division of labour and its Advantages and Disadvantages
CO 6	Conceptualise wages, its Types, Functions of wage boards and Wage differentials
CO 7	Outline the Reasons for Industrial dispute and the Machinery for prevention and settlement of Industrial disputes
CO 8	Summarize the Need and Importance of Industrial legislation & Labour Legislation.
CO 9	Analyse the economic law relating to Market and Efficiency, Market failure.
CO 10	Distinguish between Micro-Macro Economics And Law.

Subject: 5. Political Science – III

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

This course is designed to upgrade the understanding of students with respect to importance of certain principles like liberty, equality, morality, justice, and how these principles are essential for a citizen while dealing with the State machineries. It also enriches the students with the basic idea of power of legitimate authority and the political obligation of those who are in power.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Understand Meaning and Sources Law and conceptlike Rule of law.
CO 2	Analyse the different concepts likeLiberty and authority.
CO 3	Understand the different concepts like Equality and its relation with liberty
CO 4	Relate the different concepts like Justice and their inter relationship with respect to Political, Economic, Social and Distributive Justice.
CO 5	Conceptualize the meaning of Property and forms of Property.
CO 6	Explain the Meaning, Nature and specific kinds and Theories of Rights
CO 7	Describe the notions of Power, Authority and Legitimacy and their different forms and kinds
CO 8	Express the meaning of Political Obligation its Characteristics, Limitations
CO 9	Point out the significance of Political Participation
CO 10	Understand the meaning and importance of Secularism

Subject: 6. Law of Torts and Consumer Protection Act

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

This Course on Law of Torts is designed to give the students a basic knowledge and understanding about the principles of common law. Torts indicates civil liability. It is aimed to give the knowledge about the basic duty of a human being towards another human being that, you must respect the rights of each other. It talks about different torts like negligence, nuisance, defamation etc. So this is a law which talks about very basic rules, which are essential for peaceful co-existence in a complex society. It also talks about the responsibility of government to pay compensation to the individual if he suffers from any injury due to negligent act of its servants. This subject also covers the Consumer protection Act, which is the baby of Law of Torts. This covers the objectives and Scope of CPA, Enforcement machineries under the CPA and also different remedies available under CPA.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To understand the evolution and development of Law of torts and nature scope and object of law of Torts
CO2	To Understand the essential elements of Law of Torts To understand the basis for liability under the law of Torts To understand the general defenses of Torts
CO3	To understand the capacity of a person to sue and who may not be sued also to understand the extinguishment of liability
CO4	To understand the various types of liabilities and different torts like Negligence. Nuisance, trespass etc.

B.A. LL.B. IV SEMESTER 5 YC

Subject: 1. English- IV

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The course of English IV for the Law students will enhance their abilities with Law and literature a combined effort of both the subjects will incorporate law and language skills together. This will also develop their language skills providing a better platform for them in future.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	This course has topics based on legal background, where law of contract and other legal terms and legal knowledge has been discussed which will be helpful in their future legal acumen.
CO 2	The poetry section will again enhance their imaginative skills.
CO 3	Detailed study of legal terms forms a basis for their future legal studies.
CO 4	This topic of personality development, leadership skills, public speaking skills and body language is going to be a benchmark in their future development.
CO 5	The comprehension skills like précis writing, we also enhance the skill of taking notes, writing short notes, etc. which will be very helpful in their legal profession.

SUBJECT: 2. PHILOSOPHY- IV

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

In our everyday life we often appreciate or condemn human actions as good or bad, right or wrong. The course aims at explaining duty, virtues, and highest good as moral concepts. This Course focuses on evaluation of human conduct.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	Students will get the knowledge about action, habitual action, and conduct, character, desire and voluntary action so that they will understand for which action humanity is held responsible.
CO 2	Students will understand the concept of good action and right action, motive, intention and theories about them.
CO 3	Understand that ethics plays a great role in developing mankind. Know about impulses and disposition should be strengthened and suppressed.
CO 4	Understand the moral grounds on which judgment is given.

Subject: 3. History – IV

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

It takes the learners into the intellectual forum through the study of history. It inculcates a sense of nationalism. It discusses Causes Leading to the Rise of Nationalism in India. It aims at informing the students about Socio-religious Reform Movements such as Brahma Samaj, Arya Samaj, Prarthana Samaj, Ramakrishna Mission and other movements like Muslim Reform Movement, Parsi Reform Movement, Sikh Reform Movement. The course also highlights the Role of Mahatma Jyotiba Phule and Dr.B.R.Ambedkar for raising lower caste movement. The course enables the student to know about the struggle for freedom and role of some prominent leaders in Indian freedom struggle. The course focuses on Impact of British Rule on Indian economy in the field of Industries, Agriculture, Trade and Commerce.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	Students will be able to know about the role of social reformers in the socio religious reforms.
CO 2	Students will have the knowledge about Changes in Administrative Structure and Policies under the Crown.
CO 3	The students would have formed a clear idea about the era of moderates and extremists
CO 4	Understand the civil disobedience movement.
CO 5	Know the Constitutional developments during 19 th century.
CO 6	Analyse the Indian freedom struggle as well as impact of British rule on Indian Economy.
CO7	Examine the Impact of British Rule on Indian economy

Subject: 4. Economics –IV

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. To able to understand basic concepts of economics.
2. To able to analyze economic behavior in practice.
3. Understand the economic way of thinking.
4. The ability to analyze historical and current events from an economic perspective.
5. The ability to write clearly expressing an economic point of view.
6. Be exposed to alternative approaches to economic problems through exposure to coursework in Legal fields
7. To create students ability to suggest of the various economic problems.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Understand the Concept of Developed, Underdeveloped and Developing Countries – their features and Factors affecting economic growth
CO 2	Identify the Role of planning commission in New Economic Reforms and relate it with Liberalization, Privatization and Globalization

CO 3	Locate the Trends in agricultural production and productivity and learn its Broad features of reforms and Recent Industrial Policy of 1991
CO 4	Review the Centre State Financial Relations
CO 5	Generalize the Broad Features of Indian Economy
CO 6	Summarize the Consequences and Causes of concentration of economic power
CO 7	Knowledge of MRTP Act 1969 and competitions Act 2002
CO 8	Conceptualize the meaning of Capitalism and Socialism and its characteristics.

Subject: 5. Political Science – IV

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The course design of this subject is to look into how emerging issues in international relations become important in the legal context and prepare the students to understand International Law. This course also emphasises on the understanding of impact of Cold War and New Cold War on International Relations and how it has affected the role of the State in international arena.

COURSE OUTCOME: The Students will be able to:

CO 1	Analyse the emerging issues in international relations become important in the legal perspective and prepare the students to understand International relations.
CO 2	Understand the Meaning, Nature and Importance and elements of National Power.
CO 3	Express the Meaning, Nature and Importance of National Interests.
CO 4	Analyse the Impact of Cold War and New Cold War on International Relations
CO5	Understand the Meaning, Nature and Importance of Non- Alignment.
CO6	Study the Asian - African Resurgence and its impact on International Relations
CO7	Gain information regarding United Nations Organisations, its Origin, Objectives, Purpose, Principles and principal Organs.
CO8	Evaluate the different types of Diplomacy, Immunities and Privileges of Diplomats and the basic Principles of Foreign Policy adopted by different countries.

Subject: 6. Constitution – I

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course is designed to introduce the students to the basics of Constitutional Law. The students will be introduced to a brief historical background to the framing of India's Constitution, the salient features of the Constitution of India and the nature of polity established under this Constitution in India. It will also help the students understand the kind of government established the values and commitments of this Constitution and the basic framework of governance established hereunder. It is also designed to appraise the learners of the roles to be played by different political institutions in India. It will also introduce the students to the amendment procedures and the judicial turbulence in respect of amendability of fundamental rights that led to the evolution of the Basic Structure doctrine

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To know about the historical setting to the framing of India's Constitution and understand its salient features. To get an insight into its Preamble, rules relating to Citizenship etc
CO2	To know about the concept and nature of fundamental rights, the concept of state and Law
CO3	To learn the nature of Constitution's engagement with the concept of equality: its contours and scope
CO4	To understand the expanse of freedom and liberty as Constitutional guarantees
CO5	To know the import of India as a secular state and the scope of religious freedom under the Constitution. To know the guarantees against exploitation and their scope
CO 6	To understand the Constitutional remedies for enforcement of fundamental rights and the Courts power of judicial review
CO 7	To know the concept of DPSPs and Fundamental duties; their need in the Constitution and to understand their inter-relationship with FRs

B.A. LL.B. V SEMESTER 5 YC

Subject: Constitutional Law - II

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This Course on Constitutional Law is designed to give to the students a basic knowledge and understanding about Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy which constitute a very important part of our Constitution that is committed to individual liberty and freedom. The course is framed in a way that the students not only understand the textuality of these rights but also the role played by the judiciary in the expansive interpretation of these rights. This course is also designed to highlight the Constitutional principles incorporated by the court in applying these rights.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To know about the structuring of Parliamentary democracy in India; the legislature and executive branches; its functions, privileges etc. To understand the Anti-defection law in India.
CO2	To know the structuring of the Indian Judiciary; to understand the court's power of judicial review and the importance of independence and accountability of the judiciary.
CO3	To understand the nature of Indian federation and the scheme of distributing legislative, administrative and financial powers.
CO4	To understand the Constitutional provisions relating to all India services and freedom of inter-state trade in India.
CO5	To know the nature of emergency provisions, its need and types.
CO 6	To understand the Constitutional provisions relating to amendment and basic structure

CO1	To know about the structuring of Parliamentary democracy in India; the legislature and executive branches; its functions, privileges etc. To understand the Anti-defection law in India.
-----	--

Subject: 2. Legal Language and Legal writing

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

This course is designed to impart basic knowledge about laws in general, its origin, classification, kinds, functions and the sources of law. The students shall be apprised of the characteristics of legal language, problems of legal language in legal writing and legal drafting. The basics of legal terminology, maxims and fundamental principles of legal language will give students a fair idea of the nuances of legal language to be applied while drafting legal documents and writing legal opinions or analysing the case laws.

COURSEOUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To understand the definition kinds and sources of law.
CO2	To Understand meaning and characteristics of legal language, and to understand and describe importance of Legal Language
CO3	To understand different legal terminologies
CO4	To appreciate the meaning and application of important legal maxims
CO5	To know the fundamentals of legal writing
CO6	To learn the legal drafting of pleadings
CO7	To understand the basics of paraphrasing and synopsis writing

Subject: 3. Family Law – I (Hindu Law)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The Main objective of this subject is to make the students to identify and understand the scheme of ancient and Modern Hindu Law, Undivided family, Marriage, adoption, maintenance and succession under the Hindu Law. Further, the matters relating to joint family system, coparcener, karta and his powers, partition and the Hindu Religions Endowments are given in the syllabus for understanding the changes effected after the parsing of the Hindu succession Act, 1956 and other related laws. The course is framed to enable them to understand composition of Family Courts and role of NGO and Lokadalat in settling the matrimonial disputes.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	The student will be able to understand the basic elements of Hindu Law, as a basis of social welfare and social justice.
CO 2	The students will be equipped with the knowledge about the laws relating to HUF, ancestral and separate property and its devolution.
CO 3	It will help the student to understand the domestic relationship such as marriage matrimonial remedies, legitimacy of children, custody,

	Guardianship and Adoption etc.
CO 4	Students will understand the structure of Family Courts.
CO 5	Endow the students with the knowledge of various sources and schools of Hindu Law.
CO 6	The students will demonstrate the ability to market their professional skill by way of learning counseling process.
CO 7	The students will learn to bridge the gap between law and society and make the law socially relevant by gaining knowledge about various provisions of act specially designed to protect the rights of women and children.

Subject: 4. HISTOIRY V

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course aims at enlightening the students with the History of modern world. It focuses on the overall outline of world politics starting from renaissance period to First World War and Second World War. It also enriches the students with foreign policies of different countries while dealing with each other.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Examine the advent of Modern Age in Europe.
CO 2	Analyse the important Nationalistic Movements like American War of Independence, French Revolution of 1789, Unification of Italy and Germany.
CO 3	Acquaint with the Causes and Consequences of First World War (1914-19) and Second world war.
CO 4	Understand the establishment of the League of Nations and Causes leading to its Failure.
CO 5	Discuss the impact of Russian Revolution of 1917 and understand the Foreign Policy of Soviet Union under Lenin and Stalin.
CO 6	Recognize the reasons for the Rise of Fascism in Italy, Fascist Italy's Foreign Policy
CO 7	Understand the Weimer Republic and causes leading to the Rise of Nazi Germany
CO 8	Study the Causes Leading to and infer the results of the Second World War

Subject: 5. Political Science – V

Course objectives:

The course attempts to evaluate the contributions of Western and Indian political thinkers in the context of politico-legal experiences. It focuses on the study of impact of various social transformations on the political set up of the country.

Course outcome- The students will be able to-

CO 1	Analyse the nature and importance of different Political Theories.
CO2	Discuss the Concept of Citizenship, its Nature and different Theories of Citizenship
CO 3	Evaluate the process of Social Change and nature of Social change with respect to Marxist Theory of Revolutionary Change
CO 4	Identify the different Sources of Indian political thought such as The Vedas. The Mahabharat and The Smirits.
CO 5	Familiarize with the Political ideas of Kautilya and Civil and Rural Administration
CO 6	Acquaint with the Political ideas of Manu, Functions of State; Dandaneeti; Taxation; Law ; Justice and Judicial System
CO 7	Study the concept of Humanism in India with special emphasize on M.N. Roy's Radical Humanism
CO 8	Acquaint with the Political ideas of the Jayaprakash Narayan and Sarvodaya movement.

Subject: 6. Economics V*COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To able to understand basic concepts of economics.
2. To able to analyze economic behavior in practice.
3. Understand the economic way of thinking.
4. The ability to analyze historical and current events from an economic perspective.
5. The ability to write clearly expressing an economic point of view.
6. Be exposed to alternative approaches to economic problems through exposure to coursework in Legal fields.
7. To create students ability to suggest of the various economic problems.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to-

CO 1	Understand nature of Indian economy
CO 2	Point out the reasons of population & economic development
CO 3	Comprehend the general profile of Indian Agriculture.
CO 4	Understanding the concept of agricultural credit and differentiating the source.
CO 5	Describe capital formation and identify the reasons for the low rate of capital formation.
CO 6	Examine role of large scale industries and interpret its problem
CO 7	Distinguish constituents of Indian capital market.
CO 8	Appraise the causes and consequences of industrial sickness.

Subject: 7. Philosophy V*Course objective:

The course focuses on ethical theories. It focuses on evaluation of human actions as bad and good. An action done with the good intention is always right.

Course Outcome: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Describe and identify the standards of law.
CO 2	Recognize the distinction between rights and duties of men.
CO 3	Identify and compare the theories of punishment.
CO 4	Categorise and assess the teleological theory of ethics.
CO 5	Recognize and compare the deontological theory of ethics.

Subject: 8. Law of crimes*Course objective:

This Course on Law of Crimes is designed to give to the students a basic knowledge and understanding about the penal law of the country. It will clarify the concept of Crime to the students so that one understands the different definitions of crime and the scope of criminal responsibility in India. It will also talk about the basic principles of Criminal jurisprudence like, Actus Reus & Mens Rea. The course will cover mostly the provisions under Indian Penal Code. This will elaborate the General Principles of Criminal Law like Punishments, Attempt, Abatement, Conspiracy, and General Exceptions etc. And also will cover the Specific offences under it like, Offences against human body, Offences against Women, offences affecting public Health etc.

COURSEOUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO1	Criminal law is the means through which society expresses its condemnation for particular behavior and therefore through Criminal Law students will be able to learn to contemplate the proper role of the state in enforcing the public morality. To memorize the general definitions under IPC , and review the definitions of Crime To appreciate the reasons for imposition of appropriate and stringent punishments for violation of Criminal law of the Country.
CO2	To understand the concept of criminal conspiracy and abetment To identify and discuss the scheme of general Exceptions under IPC
CO3	To understand the offences affecting human body
CO4	To understand offences against women including recent amendments
CO5	To understand and explain the offences against property, state and public peace and tranquility

Subject: 9. Computer Theory*Course objective:

The course basically deals with the fundamentals of computers, data communication, networking and Internet. Understanding computer and web based technology is becoming a pressing requirement for proper understanding and application of law relating to computer and internet. With the plan in mind the course intends to provide to students;

1. An understanding Computer fundamentals
2. An understanding of various data communication systems.
3. Knowledge of various Webs based technologies.
4. An understanding of working of Internet.

Course Outcome:

After the successful completion of the course, the student will be able to,

CO 1	Understand and describe computer fundamentals including the assembly Of Computer, the concepts of memory & storage, software and applications, types and generations of computers etc.
CO 2	Describe the types data communication systems.
CO 3	Analyze various networking systems
CO 4	Illustrate the working of internet and other web based technologies.

Subject: 10. Computer (Practical Paper)Course*objective:

This is practical subject, which is designed to explain the application of basic concepts and terminology of computer. Give basic understanding about how to handle personal computer. The course deals with the different versions in windows operating system.

Course Outcome: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Acquire knowledge about generation of computers and types of computers.
CO 2	Know about hardware and software methods and tools.
CO 3	Understand types of operating system and booting process
CO 4	Differentiate types of virus and how to protect the data from virus.
CO 5	Practice to make the applications of power point presentation and types ofslides.
CO 6	Understand the Internet and browsing services available in internet

B.A. LL.B. VI SEMESTER 5 YC

Subject: 1. Jurisprudence

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course has been designed to develop the skill of critical legal thinking by furnishing them with the philosophical foundations of Law. It takes them through different theories of jurists, especially from the Western philosophical tradition to give them a refreshed understanding about the concept of law as well as other legal concepts. This course is thus designed to give to students a panoramic view of the law and to develop their legal acumen.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To recognize and understand the philosophical foundations of law
CO2	Discuss the different approaches to defining law and legal concepts
CO3	Demonstrate the diverse ways in which law interacts with society and vice-versa
CO4	To examine the different sources from which law emanates
CO5	To outline the meaning of legal concepts like rights, liability etc
CO6	To contrast between the concepts of Ownership & Possession
CO7	To describe Gender Jurisprudence and defend the different approaches therein

Subject: 2. Company Law

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Industrialization plays a very vital role in the economic development of India. Companies are no doubt powerful instruments for development besides bringing returns and financial benefits to the capital purposes. The course is designed to understand the formation, management and other activities of the companies. Important regulations pertaining to the issue of shares and the capital raising have come into force. This course aims to impart the students, the corporate management, control, possible abuses, the remedies and government regulation of corporate business and winding up. This course is framed to explain the formation of a company and capital formation of a company.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To understand the definition and attributes of company To memorize the kinds of companies
CO2	To discuss and understand the stages of formation of company, registration and incorporation of Company To know the role of Promoters and their duties and liability;
CO3	To memorize the definition of shares, allotment, statutory restrictions To understand the concept of transfer of share, debentures and debenture trustee
CO4	To analyze the concept of corporate governance To discuss the position of Directors and other Key Managerial persons, their Qualification, Disqualification, Appointment and Removal, Powers, Duties, Remuneration and Liability To study the Company Secretary their Qualification, Statutory Duties and liabilities

Subject: 3. Environmental Law*COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The course content of environment law is designed to familiarize the student with basic concept of science which will help them to understand the problem relating to pollution as well as protection of the environment. It also includes various facets of the prevailing domestic laws as well as international conventions so that one is able to decipher shortcomings, if there be any.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To identify the historical perspective of Environmental Law, concept of environment and pollution and also inculcates the need to protect the Environment.
CO2	To understand the concept of biodiversity.
CO3	To relate to the constitutional perspectives of Environmental law.
CO4	To discuss the national as well as international environment protection regime
CO5	To give comprehensive idea about Water and Air Pollution Acts
CO6	To analyze the importance of forest and wildlife.

Subject: 4. Family Law –II (Muslim Law)*COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This Course on Muslim Law is designed to give to the students a basic knowledge and understanding about Islamic law. It will cover the basic outline about the different schools under Muslim Law. It will also talk about the traditional and modern sources of Muslim Law. Muslim Marriage is a civil contract however the students will be in a position to appreciate as how it is a sacrament as well. It will elaborate different traditional concepts like Muta Marriage, Dower, Option of Puberty etc. Through different provisions under law and case study students will understand the different rights available to Muslim women. This will also cover the Principles and competence to inherit the property under Muslim Law.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able

CO1	To identify social evils prevailing in pre-Islamic Arabia which Islam wanted to address.
CO2	To identify and appreciate the circumstances which permitted the polygamous nature of Muslim marriage.
CO3	To appreciate that the Muslim personal was the first to provide for divorce by mutual consent by spouses
CO4	To illustrate that under the Muslim personal law every woman who inherits property is like a man, is its absolute owner
CO5	Given the private nature of Muslim marriage, the students are able to Understand the need for the concept of “acknowledgement of paternity”

Subject: 5. History – VI (Major Subject)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course attempts to enhance the knowledge of Students of International Affairs since 1945. This course also aims at the study of establishment, and role of United Nations Organisations as a Peace keeper. It also focuses on the knowledge of political issues persistent in different parts of world like Asia, Africa, Middle East countries and Indo –Pak Relations.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Arrange and Analyse the role of UNO in resolving political disputes in different countries. Elaborate the role of specialised agencies of United Nations Organisation
CO 2	Acquaint with the study of Cold War, its Origin and Evolution and its various phases and dimensions of Cold War and its effects on International Relations.
CO 3	Evaluate the emergence of People's Republic of china, Chinese Revolution under Mao Tse Tung and Chinese Foreign Policy under the Communist Regime.
CO 4	Appraise and interpret the middle east crisis's
CO 5	Outline and analyse African resurgence and its impact on internal relation.
CO 6	Acquire the basic knowledge of Non alignment movement and the role of India in this movement
CO 7	Recognize the crises in Afghanistan and sketch the causes and impact of cold war.

Subject: 6. Political Science – VI

This course aims at studying the importance of international relations with special reference to foreign policies. It also focuses on the study of various aspects like expansion of International Community and Decolonisation and to upgrade the students with the history of Colonialism –Decolonialism.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Identify the relationship of India and her neighbouring countries with special reference to foreign policies
CO 2	Examine the concepts like Détente and its impact and factors which prompted Detente.
CO 3	Elaborate the meaning colonization and contrast it with the development of decolonization.
CO 4	Evaluate the concepts like Neo-Colonialism and Racialism along with its practice in different countries.
CO 5	Appreciate the Cancun Summit and New NIEO, Commonwealth Heads and NIEO and the role of India and New International Economic Order.
CO 6	Understand the meaning of Arms Trade and study the impact of Arms trade on third world.
CO 7	Evaluate the role of third world in the international system.
CO 8	Study India's foreign policy since 1962 and explain it with reference to USSR, USA and Pakistan.

Subject: 7. Economics - VI

COURSE OBJECTIVES :

1. To able to understand basic concepts of economics.
2. To able to analyze economic behavior in practice.
3. Understand the economic way of thinking.
4. The ability to analyze historical and current events from an economic perspective.
5. The ability to write clearly expressing an economic point of view.
6. Be exposed to alternative approaches to economic problems through exposure to coursework in Legal fields.
7. To create students ability to suggest of the various economic problems.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Comprehend India's foreign trade and trade balance .
CO 2	Describe and analyse the gains from international trade & trade policy
CO 3	Recognise and understand types of foreign capital.
CO 4	Study the impact of foreign Aid on Indian economic development.
CO 5	Arrange and classify merits and demerits of MNCs.
CO 6	Outline the features of GATT.
CO 7	Understand the meaning of BOP and discuss the causes of Deficit.

Subject: 8. Philosophy – VI

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Applied ethics is a general field of study that includes all systematic efforts to understand and resolve moral problems that arise in the domain of practical life such as medical profession, legal profession, journalism and business. This paper tries to focus on the problem resolution in connection with some general issues and social concern such as employment, equity, capital punishment and euthanasia.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Comprehend the nature and scope of applied ethics.
CO 2	Identify and appraise professional and business ethics.
CO 3	Elaborate and analyse legal ethics and its problems.
CO 4	Comprehend development of medical ethics and point out its impact on public interest.
CO5	Comprehend the concept of mercy killing and distinguish the arguments for and against euthanasia.

Subject: 9. Sociology – I*COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The first part of this course framed with the object to study the work of both early social theorists like Marx and Weber and more recent theorists like Louise, Garner, Tonnise and among others. The second part of this course will examine influential work on the major social institutions in India such as caste, tribe, religion, gender and class. Further, the scholarship surrounding secularism, communalism and nationalism in contemporary India will engage our attention. In addition to academic writings, we will sample sociologically relevant work from social activists and journalists.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Understand the meaning and variety of The definitions defined by the eminent Sociologist.
CO 2	Discussion about the concept of social Status and Roles in society vis-a-vis its Coherence and Deviation in the society.
CO 3	Describe the concept of the social groups, its characteristic, classification, importance and critical appraisal of social stratification.
CO 4	Describe social institutions, characteristics, functions and analyse the problems and changes brought about by modernity.
CO 5	Discuss, appraise and analyse the concept of social organization and disorganization with the study of problems and cause of disorganization with respect to vulnerable groups.

B.A. LL.B. VII SEMESTER 5 YC*Subject: 1. Labour Law –I*COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course develops students' knowledge and understanding of labour relations as well as essential labour laws governing terms and conditions of employment, with particular reference to India. The form and structure of legal regulation of employer-employee relations is influenced by historical, economic and political factors. Student will be expected to gain an understanding of the various factors in the industrial relations system, the institutional relationships among the actors, and some of the norms and rules that are developed within the labour law system as well as through the jurisprudence evolved by the judiciary.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To recall the industrial economic and social context in which labour is regulated
CO2	To appreciate the significance of the role of the Constitution in Federal system of industrial relations
CO3	To critically appreciate the entire framework for prevention and settlement of Industrial disputes in India
CO4	To analyze the working of several authorities under the ID Act
CO5	To examine the concept, nature and coverage of standing orders. To evaluate the nature of disciplinary proceedings in Industries.

Subject: 2. Human Right*COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The objective of this course is to make students aware of the principles of international humanitarian law and enable them to specialize in the field of Human Rights Law. The course helps in upgrading the knowledge of students with regard to Human rights of Disabled Persons, Indigenous persons, Persons with HIV – AIDS. It also focuses on the study of Child Rights Convention, Convention against Slavery, Convention on Refugees and other related international covenants enhancing the scope of Humanitarian Law.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To appreciate the historical setting of the evolution of human rights; to apply different sources of International human rights law; to appreciate the significance of human rights
CO2	To examine the provisions of different International Covenants, Conventions etc
CO3	To evaluate the effectiveness of various Regional Conventions in the domain of Human rights
CO4	To understand and analyse the different mechanisms for dispute resolution under the Human Rights Act
CO5	To spread awareness about legal provisions applicable to vulnerable groups
CO6	To understand the Human Rights Protection in India with respect to enforcement of human rights.

Subject: 3. Transfer of Property

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course framed with the object to know the concept of 'property' and the nature of property right are basic to the understanding of law relating to property. This course will study the concept in particular, its contemporary emphasis, on 'user', the evolution of the right to transfer property and the limitations operating thereon as laid down in the Transfer of Property Act. Necessary references will be made to the English law as well as to the doctrines of equity which have been responsible for the crystallization of the basic principles and doctrines of property law. The general principles and the provision on various modes (Lease, Mortgage, Sale, Gift and Exchange) relating to transfer of property will be studied.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To discuss the meaning and concept of property, kinds of property and modes of transfer
CO2	To apply different doctrines to matters related to transfer of property
CO3	To memorize and understand the essential features and other important aspects of sale and mortgage
CO4	To explain and grasp the different types, procedures, rights and duties with respect to lease and gifts
CO5	To understand and evaluate the nature and scope of easements and testamentary succession

Subject: 4. Cyber Law

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The development of Information technology has developed the Communication. The course thus deals with all the aspects of Cyber law and deals with Indian IT act 2008. It covers the various aspects of Cyber crime. It also covers overview of Intellectual Property Right and Trademark Related laws with respect to Cyber Space. The course aims to give in depth knowledge of Information Technology Act and legal frame work of Right to Privacy, Data Security and Data Protection. It covers other cyber crimes that are taking place via the Internet.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To understand the fundamentals of E- Commerce and E- contracting
CO2	To grasp the overall framework of the IT act, 2000
CO3	To appreciate and understand Cybercrimes, and civil wrongs under the IT Act, 2000
CO4	To formulate and explain Intellectual property issues in Cyber space
CO5	To evaluate the mechanism for dispute resolution under Cyber space
CO6	To identify and explain the Constitutional issues in Cyber-Space
CO7	To evaluate the resolution of Human rights issues in Cyber Space

Subject: 5. Public International Law

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The objectives of this course are to accustom students with fundamentals of Public International law and update them with the latest development. The study of this course helps students in exploring the various methods through which the State is recognised as well as modes through it may lose its existence. It also focuses on the study of relationship of individual with the State in international scenario. It also aims at enriching the students with new evolving aspects like Conventions such as Outer space Treaty, Moon Treaty and the Law of the Sea.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To Remember and understand Origin, Development and Definition of International Law. To understand the nature and Basis of International Law and Sources of International Law. To comprehend the Relationship between Municipal Law and International Law.
CO2	To remember and understand essential characteristics of a State in International Law To develop the understanding of Sovereignty of States, Kinds of states, Rights and duties of states. To understand the concept of State succession, its definition and Kinds of Succession To gain knowledge about State Jurisdiction.
CO3	To remember the Definition of State Recognition, various theories and Legal Effects of Recognition.
CO4	To understand the Extradition & Asylum, Diplomatic agents, Consuls and other representatives. To analyze the formation of treaties.
CO5	To develop understanding about The United Nations Organization, Preamble, purposes and principles of UN Charter. To understand the role of other Specialized agencies such as UNESCO, WHO, ILO, IMF in Settlement of international disputes.
CO6	To conceptualize the Legal Regime of the Seas and Evolution of the Law of the Sea – Freedoms of the High Seas Common Heritage of Mankind

Subject: 6. Sociology – II

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

This course designed to let the student study the sociology of law and legal institutions in India in order to examine how the existing legal structures function in a society structured by religion, caste, class and gender. Further, the relationship between law and social movements will be considered. A special interest of this course is to scrutinize law as a cultural phenomenon. The second module of this course will deal with the conceptual difficulties and Role of GOs and NGOs in rural and urban settings.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO 1	Describe and elaborate the concept of human ecology with an appraisal of how humans are related to their environment.
CO 2	Comprehend the concepts of Rural Poverty, Bonded Labour, Agricultural Labour, Rural Employment, Town and Country Planning and compare the role of local bodies in law enforcement.
CO 3	Outline the Role of GOs and NGOs in rural and urban settings with an understanding of CSR with respect to rural and urban problems.
CO 4	Describing and expanding the concepts Gram Nyayalaya, Lok Adalat, RTI and Legal literacy
CO 5	Understand the role of social work in community development Define and comprehend the concept of law as an instrument of social change.

B.A. LL.B. VIII SEMESTER 5 YC

Subject: 1. Civil Procedure Code and Limitation Act

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The main objective of the said subject is that to sets out the rules and standards that Courts should follow while adjudicating the civil law suits. It helps the parties to understand the ways and means by which their rights and liabilities can be enforced. The course study and analyze and explains the competent and jurisdiction of civil courts. It helps the students to learn the Stages, Kinds and requirement to interpret the rules while conducting Civil litigations in Courts and further helps to solvethe legal problems related to the requirement of the case when the students steps out in practice. It further analyze the law relevant to initiating and responding the suit filed between the parties in court.It defines the area of remedies in civil litigations matters, and explains in precision manner regarding the draft, pleading and discovery of documents in proper court format.

COURSE OUTCOME: The student will be able to:

CO1	To understand the provisions of Civil procedure so that they can learn the distinction between substantive and procedural Law. To describe the meaning of suit; Parties to Suit; Framing of Suit, Institution of Suits and Doctrines of Sub Judice and Res Judicata. To understand the extent of Territorial Jurisdiction
CO2	To describe and memorize the concept of plaint, Pleadings and documents
CO3	To understand the procedure for Appearance and Examination of parties & Adjournments, Ex-parte Procedure etc. To outline the concept of judgment and decree. Analyze the different concept of Arrest and detention; Attachment and Sale.
CO4	To relate when and against and whom suits can be filed under CPC. To memorize the procedure for proceeding. To understand the concept of Appeals, Reference, Review and Revision

CO5	To understand the salient features and legal provisions of Limitation Act, 1963
-----	---

Subject: 2.Criminal Procedure Code, Probation of Offenders Act and Juvenile Justice Act

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course focuses on the procedural aspects of criminal justice system. The course is divided into criminal procedure code, probation of offenders Act and juvenile justice act. The course will help students not only with procedural aspects but also with case study. It is additionally helpful in forming nexus between criminal jurisprudence and constitutional perspective. Criminal procedure code also discusses the rights of accused and principal of natural justice which forms the basis of the whole procedural law.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To discuss the provisions of CrPC, 1973 and functioning of the Criminal justice system. To distinguish the different offences.
CO2	To describe and understand the rights of arrested and accused persons from the point of view of constitutional Law. To appreciate the meaning and scope of arrest
CO3	To critically analyze the provisions for granting maintenance to wives, children and parents.
CO4	To appreciate general provisions relating to search and seizure.
CO5	To understand the meaning and purpose of investigation

Subject: 3.Law of Evidence

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The Indian Evidence Act was intended to be the complete code of evidence for India. The ultimate aim of producing evidence is to facilitate the judge to arrive at a rational conclusion with respect to the matters disputed before him. For this, Indian Evidence Act has within its fold four fundamental principles best evidence, relevancy, admissibility and appreciation. This course of law of evidence is structured in a fashion so as to encourage the students to appreciate the underlying principles of law of evidence. The course serves dual purpose- one, to technically equip students to be able to read the legal text and second to apply the same in actual cases. The stress in this course will also be on examining the judicial precedents where these principles have been subject to judicial scrutiny and interpretation.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able

CO1	To analyze and understand the elementary principle of the law of Evidence as laid down in Indian Evidence Act, 1872, meaning and kinds of Evidence.
CO2	To remember and understand the General Principles concerning Admission, Dying Declarations and their evidentiary value. To understand the concept of Witnesses, Admissibility of evidence of witnesses
CO3	To comprehend the General Principles concerning oral evidence and documentary evidence, Primary and Secondary evidence. To understand various Modes of proof of execution of documents and Presumptions as to Documents.
CO4	To memorize the Rules relating to Burden of Proof. To understand the Presumption as to Dowry Death.
CO5	To Understand the concept Examination in Chief, Cross examination and Re-examination To remember and understand the provisions relating to Hostile witness Impeaching the credit of witness

Subject: 4. Labour Law –II

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course develops students' knowledge and understanding of Social Security and Social Insurance provided to workers as well as essential welfare legislations governing terms and conditions of social insurance and social security. The form and structure of legal regulation of employer-employee relations is influenced by historical, economic and political factors. Students will be expected to gain an understanding of the various factors in the social security system, the institutional relationships among the employers and employees, and some of the norms and rules that are developed within the labour law system as well as through the jurisprudence evolved by the judiciary.

COURSE OUTCOMES: The students will be able:

CO 1	To understand the nature and scope of Social Security and Welfare Legislations
CO 2	To describe the rationale of providing social security to the labour in organizations
CO 3	To identify all aspects of Labour welfare Legislations practiced in India
CO4	To exhibit a comprehensive theoretical and practical understanding of Welfare legislations and Laws related to workers
CO5	To demonstrate an intellectual capacity for solving workmen disputes Relating to Social Security and Social Insurance.

Subject: 5.Health Law

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This Course on Health Law is designed to give to the students a basic knowledge and understanding about the different health policies adopted and the different Issues and challenges faced by the present health policy in India. This course will cover the historical development and the reasons behind the necessity of interference of Legislation in the health sector. It will cover the challenges faced due to complicated Doctor Patient relationship in the commercialised world. It will also focus on very crucial issues like, surrogacy, status of HIV AIDS Patients, Organ Transplantation, Female foeticide, abortion etc. The course will also cover the socio, legal and ethical issues raised due to development in technology like Genetic engineering and stem cell therapy.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To Understand the Interrelationship Between Law and Medicine To comprehend the Constitutional Perspectives, Fundamental Right to Health care, Right to Life, Right to Clean Environment and Right to Emergency Medical Care
CO2	To Understand and analyze the legislative perspective of various enactment such as Drugs and Cosmetics Act,1940, The Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques Act, 1994,The Transplantation of Human Organs Act, 1994, The Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act, 1971and Mental Health Act,1987
CO3	Analyze the different crucial issues which arose in a complex society like reproductive health, HIV-AIDS, Female foeticide, Surrogacy etc. To understand the Offences Affecting Public Health under IPC.
CO4	To understand the doctor patient relationship, different concepts like Medical Negligence and Civil, Criminal and Liability. To analyze the Regulation of Bio-Medical Waste.
CO5	To analyze the Contemporary Issues. To understand the Social, Legal & Ethical Issues of Surrogacy, Euthanasia in India, Malnutrition in India.
CO 6	To Understand the Interrelationship Between Law and Medicine To comprehend the Constitutional Perspectives, Fundamental Right to Health care, Right to Life, Right to Clean Environment and Right to Emergency Medical Care

Subject: 6. Law of Trust (Optional Paper)

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

This course designed to provide the understanding with the nature and historical evolution of Trusts, different types of Trust, the concept of the creation of the trust and their right, duties and powers, liabilities of both trustee and that of beneficiary. The second module of the course framed with the intent to study the registration of the public trust and the important doctrines with the relevant cases decided by the courts.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	The course enhances the cognitive domain of the student to understand the term of trust and the different terminologies used in trust. It further states the development of trust law and equity, the meaning and nature of trust.
CO 2	It provides the understanding on the creation of the trust, various rights, duties and liability of the trustee.
CO 3	It further gives the details of various rights, duties and liability of the beneficiary.
CO 4	The course states the occasion where the trust extinguishes.
CO5	Understand the Duties of constructive trustees and Rights of bonafide purchasers

Subject: 7. Insurance Law*COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Insurance is a very technical subject. So, while dealing in insurance matters, finance professional or an investor should understand the basic concepts and principles of insurance. This subject course thus designed to enable the students to understand the need of studying principles of insurance. It covers meaning of insurable interest in insurance agreements and its importance, meaning of indemnity and its importance in insurance claims, Meaning of „Uberrimae fidei“ and its use in Insurance contracts. Study focuses on various laws and regulations related to general insurance business in India.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To explain the historical setting of Insurance in India; to understand the scheme of IT Act and rights and liabilities of the insurer and insured
CO2	To explain the contract of Insurance and the meaning and scope of risk in insurance law
CO3	To describe the nature and scope of life insurance; its kinds and understand the scope of laws like Life Insurance Corporation Act, General Insurance Act and Motor Vehicles Act
CO4	To examine the effectiveness of fire Insurance laws in India
CO5	To analyse and appreciate the law relating to Marine insurance in India

B.A. LL.B. IX SEMESTER 5 YC*Subject: 1. Land Laws*COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The object of this paper is to focus on land reforms besides land acquisition procedures enunciated in the Act. Each state has the power to make special laws or rules with respect to the land under its jurisdiction with respect to transfer of agricultural property, which includes registration or prohibiting persons from alienation or transfer of it. Land Law addresses the legal mandates set forth by a country in regards to land ownership. It provides in-depth knowledge on Central and State Land Laws. The course focuses on enhancing the skills, interpretation and application of different types of Land Laws. To focus on land reforms besides Land Acquisition procedures enunciated in the Act of 1894 & 2013 and the constitutional perspective relating to this subject have to be taught as an essential part of this course.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To understand The Land Acquisition Act, Constitutional Remedies, the procedure for acquisition and compensation and details regarding Classification of lands.
CO2	To analyze the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act 2013
CO3	To understand The Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act, 1966, the constitution of Regional Town Planning Board, its duties and powers.

CO4	To develop understanding about The Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966 To understand the role of Revenue Officers, Chief Controlling Authority, Revenue Officer in districts and their power and duties.
CO5	To understand and remember The Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966 ,Penalty for default of payment of land revenue, Process of recovery of arrears, Arrest and Detention of default.  To understand the Land record, Record of right, Register of Mutation, Nistarpatrak and WajibUIUrj, Appeal, Revision and Review, Maharashtra Revenue Tribunal

Subject: 2. Interpretation of Statute

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The Course is designed in such a way so as to impart knowledge about the Principles of Interpretation, Rules of Interpretation, External aids to Interpretation. The Course creates a foundation for the law students by introducing them with the nuances of Interpretation of Statues which will further help them in developing Legal acumen.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO1	To understand different theories of judicial process and kinds of statutory interpretation; To illustrate the canons of construction and implications of rules of interpretation
CO2	To understand and apply the basic principles of and presumptions relating to interpretation of statutes
CO3	To understand the different rules of interpretation and to apply them effectively in drafting of legal documents.
CO4	To get a grasp of the different subsidiary rules of construction and use of different words
CO5	To understand the need and importance of internal & external aids to construction
CO6	To apply principles of interpretation to special statutes like Taxing statutes, Penal and Welfare statutes etc
CO7	To apply the rules of Construction with respect to General Clauses Act 1897 to effectively interpret statutes

Subject: 3. Intellectual Property Law

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The course has been designed to study the novel avenue of the typical kind of intangible property in the name of Intellectual property. This course aims to study the existing (copyright, patent, trademark and designs) and emerging (computer software) forms of intellectual property in terms of Indian law and policy as well as new international demands and trends. Besides, the course will examine the philosophical foundations of recognizing intellectual property rights, its relation with public interest and socio-economic development and the demands of equity and compulsions of international trade.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able

CO1	To understand the Meaning, Nature, Classification and protection of Intellectual
-----	--

	Property To understand the main forms of Intellectual Property Copyright, Trademarks, Patents, Designs etc.
CO2	To analyze the leading international instruments concerning Intellectual Property Rights, The World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), International Trade Agreements concerning IPR WTO TRIPS.
CO3	To understand the Historical evolution of Copy Right Act, 1957, Meaning of copyright, Registration of Copyright; Term of Copyright; Ownership and Assignment of copyright
CO4	To develop the understanding relating to Intellectual Property in Trademarks and the rationale of their protection. To understand Definition and characteristics of Design Law in India the Designs Act, 2000, Protection and rights of design holders.
CO5	To understand Historical overview of the Patents Law in India, Patentable Inventions Kinds of Patents, Procedure for obtaining patent and Recent amendment
CO 6	To develop the understanding about the Page Geographical indication, Plant varieties, To understand the concept of Traditional knowledge.,Bio piracy, Patentability of Biotechnology and micro- organisms.

Subject: 4. Alternative Dispute Resolution (Clinical Paper –I )

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course aims at providing an overview of how Alternative Dispute Resolution has become the primary means by which cases are resolved now days, especially commercial, business disputes. It has emerged as the preferred method for resolving civil cases, with litigation as a last resort. The course also focuses on an introduction to Arbitration and conciliation proceedings apart from the traditional negotiation and mediation theory.

CO 1	This clinical course will assist the students in demonstrating the various skills and techniques of Alternative Dispute Resolution especially in commercial, business disputes.
CO 2	Alternative Dispute Resolution will aid the students in application of the statutory provisions of the relevant Act and use case law emphasizing these processes during litigation.
CO 3	This course will make the students skilled not only in litigation but also in problem-solving through negotiation and mediation, which costs the clients less in terms of time and money.
CO 4	Through this course the students will be well versed in conducting the proceedings of Lok Adalats, Family Courts and Tribunals.
CO 5	The students will also be able to reflect the arbitration proceedings in their practice as an alternative to traditional court practice.

Subject: 5. Professional Ethics and Professional accounting System (Clinical Paper –II)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Every profession has certain peculiar codes of conduct and well defined norms. Ethics are an integral part of every profession. Advocacy being a profession of immense social relevance, and its significant role in the justice delivery system makes it a unique profession in itself and therefore it is highly desired that this profession be carried on ethically. This course aims at appreciating the role of advocates as well as the Bar-Bench relation. Designed to be taught with the assistance of practitioners, it will impart the students their role and responsibilities as professionals.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To understand the contempt law in India and the classifications of contempt, the punishments and remedies etc.
CO 2	To do case studies and Case presentations
CO3	To apply general principles of accounting
CO4	To understand the historical evolution of the legal profession as well as the various codes of conduct and ethical norms for the advocates.
CO5	To apply the concept of professional accountability
CO6	To assess the non negotiable importance of professional ethics

Subject: 6. Criminology and Penology (Optional Paper – I)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The Course is designed with an objective to acquaint the students with different Theories of Criminology, factors responsible for criminal behaviour so as to develop their analytical ability. It also focuses on the core areas of Criminal Justice system including the treatment for correction of offenders which would act as a precursor in developing research interest in the students at later stage.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	Demonstrate adeptness in the understanding of various Theories of Criminology and factors responsible for criminal behaviour, Penal policy, Correctional strategies, victimology etc.
CO 2	Think out of the box and assess and evaluate independently the Criminal Justice System in India.
CO 3	Articulate original thoughts about the formation of strategies for re-socialisation of offenders.
CO 4	Pursue higher research in the field of Criminology and Penology at later stage after creating a strong foundation through this subject.

Subject: 7 Right To Information (Optional Paper – I)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course aims at emphasising the importance of Fundamental Right to Information in democracy. It also focuses on the study of necessity of having a comprehensive enactment on right to information. It enhances the knowledge of students with regard to role of Public Information Officer and their Duties and Onus on the PIOs. It also emphasises on the role of Civil Society Organizations and Media for Good Governance.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	This course will be helpful in acquiring comprehensive knowledge of the provisions of the RTI Act, 2005 and its general applicability in day to day affairs while dealing with governmental agencies.
CO 2	It will make the students analyse the roles and responsibilities of government officers concerned while implementing the law and enforcing the rights of the citizens.
CO 3	Through this course the students will be able to evaluate the remedies available to a citizen whose right is infringed due to non-compliance of the said Act.
CO 4	The students will also study decisions rendered by State Information Commissions and Central Information Commission relating to different Government Departments.
CO 5	The students will be able to demonstrate the role of Civil Society Organizations and Media for Good Governance.
CO 6	It will be able to express the importance of records management for Effective Information through Best practices.

B.A. LL.B. X SEMESTER 5 YC*Subject: 1. Administrative Law*COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course enriches the students with the basic Principles of Administrative Law including quasi-legislative, quasi-judicial and other ministerial functions of administration and control thereof with a practical approach. This course also aims at studying the notions like Administrative Discretion and Delegated legislation, where it reflects the due diligence on the part of administrative authorities while taking any action. The course will make students receptive of various aspects of Administrative Law including quasi-legislative, quasi-judicial and pure ministerial functions of administration and appreciate how judiciary controls the various administrative authorities through judicial review.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To recall the nature of Constitutional Law and to distinguish between Constitutional Law and Administrative law.
CO2	To describe the basic concepts like rule of law and separation of powers.
CO3	To understand concepts like delegated legislation and administrative adjudication and to assess their effectiveness in contemporary times
CO4	To understand and explain the Principles of Natural justice
CO5	To indicate the importance of Institutions like Ombudsman, commission of Inquiry, CVC etc. in the administrative process

Subject: 2. Banking Law

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The banking industry in India is one of the advanced sections of Indian economy. The legal framework even after nationalization has provided so much scope for competitive development that it deserves to be studied in context in the law curriculum. This course aims to study banking law and practice in the perspective of the changing trade and investment scenario of the country with special reference to Securitization Act, 2002 and Law relating to Negotiable Instruments, 1881 Act.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To explain the origin and evolution of banking institutions; to discuss and distinguish between different types of banks; to appreciate and analyse the Banking Regulation Act, 1949
CO2	To understand the meaning and procedure for loans and advances; to study and explain agency services financing of exports etc; to analyse Securitization Act, 2002
CO3	To enable students to understand legal provisions relating to Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, Penal provisions under NI Act, Bankers Book Evidence Act, 1891
CO4	To further explain the contemporary forms of Banking like ancillary services and e-banking
CO5	To understand the relationship between banker and customer
CO1	To explain the origin and evolution of banking institutions; to discuss and distinguish between different types of banks; to appreciate and analyse the Banking Regulation Act, 1949

Subject: 3. Law of Taxation

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

Direct taxes and its administration is the main focus of this course. The principles of taxation (income tax, corporation tax, wealth tax), the system of tax assessment, recovery and administration, the incidence of tax in production, consumption saving and income distribution are discussed in the course with the help of case law and statutory provisions. A major concern in the course is to relate the economic policies and processes to tax and fiscal policies in different systems of economic administration keeping the constitutional goals in view.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able:

CO1	To analyze the Constitutional basis of power of Taxation. To understand the scope of Tax laws. To understand the conceptual and practical aspects in taxation
-----	---

CO2	To Learn to compute and assess the tax on Income of individual, Company etc. To discuss the Heads of Income.
CO3	To analyze the concept of clubbing of income and deductions to be made in computing Total income
CO4	To apply the legal provisions and procedure for filing of returns, payment of advanced tax, TDS etc. To understand the provisions of appeal and grievances for assessment
CO5	To critically analyze the nature and scope of the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017
CO6	To discuss the administration and collection of Tax To analyze the integrated and Union territories Goods and Service tax Act, 2017 and integrated Goods and Service tax Act, 2017 and

Subject: 4. Drafting , Pleading and conveyancing ( Clinical paper III)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This Paper aims at giving the students an opportunity to understand and refer to various practical aspects of civil and criminal laws. It also emphasizes on the conveyancing aspects and imparts the students the requisites of various deeds that go to make the theoretical law complete.

COURSE OUTCOME: The student will be able:

CO1	To Understand the general principal of drafting and substantive rules.
CO2	To comprehend and remember the drafting of Civil—Plaint, Written Statement, the principles of conveyancing with reference to different deeds. To understand the drafting of Bail Application, Memorandum of Appeal and Revision
CO3	To remember and understand the drafting of sale Deed, Mortgage Deed, Lease Deed, Gift Deed, Promissory Note, Power of Attorney, Will, Trust Deed

Subject: 5. Moot Court and Internship (Clinical paper III)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course is designed to introduce the students to the practical aspects of the profession by organizing moot courts and sending them to courts for a personal experience of the functioning of courts. In this connection it to provide the necessary feels of the court room environment to thestudents by arranging moot courts. It aims at taking the students to Courts visits, periodically, to observe and note down the different stages of judicial proceedings. It aims at providing an opportunity to the students to visit the Lawyers' Chambers regularly and acquaint themselves with the techniques of client interviewing. The Viva Voce is taken by external examiner to evaluate the student.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO1	To appreciate the research and argument skill Required by the Lawyer.
CO2	To apply techniques of client interviewing.
CO3	To understand the preparation of court papers and documents
CO4	To explain the procedural steps involved in the preparation of brief by an Advocate.
CO5	Will understand the process of filing suit or petition.
CO6	Help the student to improve analytical skill.

Subject: 6. INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW (OPTIONAL PAPER I)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This introductory course deals with structural aspects of the international trade law system, the history of the international legal system; customary international law; treaty law and interpretation; the meaning and jurisprudence of international law statehood and recognition; international organizations such as the United Nations, the World Trade Organization, the IMF, World Bank, UNCTAD, UNCITRAL and ICSID as well as the relationship between the international legal system and domestic systems. The course will provide a study of the modes of International Trade Contracts ;INCO Terms affecting the International Trade and contracts; In addition the course will review the legal vehicles available to facilitate international dispute resolution methods for governments and business entities.

COURSE OUTCOME:

CO 1	The overall aim of the course is to enable students to critically examine the legal operation of international trade agreements and their application and impact on international business and trading activities.
CO 2	To understand the key international agreements covered under the GATT/WTO multilateral trading framework.
CO 3	To understand the nature of international trade law within the structure of the international legal system.
CO 4	To consider the roles played by international organisations including the United Nations, the World Trade Organisation, UNCTAD, UNCITRAL and ICSID.
CO 5	To examine legal mechanisms available to facilitate international dispute resolution for governments and business, and the recognition of foreign awards and judgments.

Subject: 7. Women and Law (Optional Paper II)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course on women and law walks the students through specific laws that deal with the provision of security, protection and protective discrimination of women. The course is divided to include the laws that provide physical, personal and mental protection to women who are discriminated against and the women who are marginalised in the society. The course will Study and analyze, what are the legal provisions enacted to ameliorate these situations with special emphasis on Indian Municipal Law and what is the scope and shortcomings in the existing legal regime in this regard.

COURSE OUTCOME: The students will be able to:

CO1	To know the historical background of the status of women in India; to appreciate the Constitution's engagement with respect to women
CO2	To critically appraise the legal provisions under varied statutes in India with respect to marriage, divorce, succession, maintenance etc
CO3	To evaluate recent developments in regard to protection of rights of women under Indian Penal Code
CO4	To understand socio-legal position of women envisaged under special statutes like PCPNDT Act, MTP Act etc
CO5	To examine and apply different International Conventions for the protection of Women