Dr. Mrs. H.V. Menon
Professor & Head
Department of Law
Dr. Ambedkar College
Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur.

The Department of Law, Dr. Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur took an initiative to organize “Two days Orientation Program” for the students of LL.B. I Semester (NCBS), Academic Session 2022 – 2023 of the Department of Law through online mode. The Orientation lecture was aimed at addressing the students of LL.M. III Semester to give the newly enrolled students all the necessary information about the institution, faculties and realize their responsibility towards it. On the first day Dr. H.V. Menon, Professor & Head, Department of Law, Dr.Ambedkar College, Deekshabhoomi, Nagpur was the In House Speaker for the Orientation Lecture. She very lucidly acquainted the newly enrolled students with the Facilities and the subject they need to learn in this semester. She gave the details regarding the infrastructure of the college and gave the brief introduction about all the faculty members of the Department. Dr. Menon aptly discussed about the norms of the college which has be strictly adhered by the students in campus. She further gave the detailed information regarding three clubs of the Department Constitutional Club, Criminal Law Club and Legal Aid Clinic and its co-ordinators.

On the second day, the aptitude test has been conducted through the google form link shared with the students and asked them to fill in the inputs. This aptitude test has been followed by the Guest Lecture by Adv Wilson Mathew. He delivered the lecture on “Career Orientation on Advocacy” wherein he laid the emphasize on the importance of legal language in learning and practicing law. He emphatically suggested the student to inculcate the habit of learning through reading. He asked students to read the law related information through newspaper, books, articles, and blogs on famous advocate like Harris Salve, Ramjeth Malani. He conveyed the students that the present generation is blessed with internet access, where they can retrieve each and every information since the period of Queen Mary till the present contemporary period. He shared personal experience of his journey in law from student till his present position. He asked the student to develop the habit of interacting with the faculty as it is the major source of cognitive information. At last, he wished all the students for their future endeavours.
